NEW PLANING MILL AT KAHULUI.

Sash and Door Factory and planing Mill Being Erected by W. J. Moody--Will Manufacture
Koa furniture.

FARMERS WILL HOLD ANNUAL MEETING.

Farewell Dance Given Miss Mary Chillingworth--Jury List
from which Jurymen will be drawn for the year 1907--
Knights will Give Grand Ball.

NEW MILL FOR KAHULUI.

Contractor and builder W. J. Moody is erecting a planing mill, and sash and door factory in Kahului. The mill will be one hundred feet by one hundred feet and will be equipped with suitable machinery for the successful operation of the same. It is the intention of Mr. Moody to manufacture hard wood furniture at the mill. He expects to make koa furniture a specialty. J. A. Harris will have a paint shop in the building and will make a specialty of Carriage painting, trimming and upholstering.

As all of the machinery is now on the ground and the building is being rapidly built the mill will soon be ready for business. The new enterprise should be a success as it is centrally located and the men who are at the head of the same are well and favorably known.

FARMERS TO MEET.

The Farmers' Institute of Hawaii, in co-operation with the Hawaiian Poultry Association's second annual exhibition at Honolulu, December 20, 22, 1906, will hold its first agricultural exhibition, to which all are invited to send of their choicest farm, garden and green-house products.

Mr. J. E. Higgins, Horticulturist, Hawaii Experiment Station, will have charge of installing the exhibits, and will also be in attendance during the exhibition to answer questions concerning general horticultural questions. It will be the aim to make this phase of the exhibition as instructive as possible.

The Hawaii Experiment Station will exhibit the most approved fruit packages and methods of packing fruit for shipment to the mainland, based upon recent experiments made by the Horticultural Division.

Below is a list of exhibits and prizes offered by the Farmers' Institute. No entry fees will be charged.

ANOTHER RAILROAD FOR SAN DIEGO.

Clause Spreckels will build a railroad between Yuma Arizona and San Diego--Roosevelt will revoke order for Simplified spelling in public Documents.

(SPECIAL TO THE MAUI NEWS.)

Sugar, 3.82325. Beets, 9s. 10½d.

SAN DIEGO, December 14.—Claus Spreckels has announced his intention to build a railroad connecting this place with Yuma Arizona.

WASHINGTON, December 14.—The President will revoke his order to use reformed spelling in official documents.

HONOLULU, December 14.—The Board of Immigration will order 1000 Spaniards.

Two regiments of U. S. troops are to be hurried to Honolulu. They will consist of about 2500 men.

Judge DeBolt nominated for reappointment.

WASHINGTON, December 13.—A denial has been given out here that the government has been notified regarding the presence of two Japanese regiments of infantry among the Honolulu Japanese.

LOS ANGELES, December 13.—John Ena died here yesterday.

PITTSBURG, December 13.—The petition of Angustus Hartje for a divorce from his wife has been denied.

OMAHA, Nebraska, December 12.—President Schowell of the Coal Exchange has been convicted of a violation of the anti-trust law.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 12.—In the Senate today Senator Raynor attacked the Japanese contentions of the President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 12.—The following men have been nominated for ambassadors. Horace White for France, Lloyd C. Griscom for Italy, John W. Riddle for Russia and Irving B. Dudley for Brazil.

Leslie Combs has been nominated for Minister to Peru.

NEW YORK, December 11. Bellamy Storer reiterates his position in a reply to President Roosevelt's letter regarding the recall of Storer as Ambassador to Austria, in which the President denies any unfairness in the matter. Storer now makes public more of the letters written by the President regarding his recall.

BERLIN, December 11.—The Reichstag has ratified the treaty signed by the representatives of the Powers at the Algeiras conference.

This treaty defined the French sphere of influence in Morocco, giving that nation the right of policing the country. An equal right had been claimed in Morocco by the Kaiser and the matter threatened the peace of Europe. The conference at Algeiras was concluded last April with a victory for the French diplomats over the German representatives.

ALGIERS, December 11.—Bohanzen, the ex-King of Dahomey, is dead.

This dusky monarch was deposed from his throne at the French occupation of his country. In 1888 he was exiled to the Island of Martinique, three wives, two daughters and a son accompanying him into exile. Recently he was allowed to return to French Africa to end his days.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 11.—The British ship Palgrave, which was driven ashore on Alcatraz Island in yesterday's gale, has been pulled off. The vessel is not seriously damaged.

The Palgrave is a ship of 3078 tons register and was bound in for San Francisco from Hamburg.

WASHINGTON, December 11.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw will relieve the stringency in the New York money market by depositing twenty million dollars of government funds in the New York banks.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—Secretary Metcalf has not sent to the Senate the results of the investigation of the school situation in regard to the Japanese children. He says that it is in the hands of the President.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—Congressman Kahn introduced a bill today asking for an appropriation of $3,000,000 with which to build torpedo boats for Pacific waters.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 10.—In a severe gale from the southeast the ship Palgrave went ashore today on Alcatraz Island.

Numerous buildings in this city and many ruined walls suffered from the wind, walls being prostrated.

One person was killed and many injured by falling masonry.

The damage is estimated at $300,000.

CHRISTIANIA, December 10.—The Nobel prize, consisting of $40,000 has been awarded to President Roosevelt for his important services in bringing to an end the war between Japan and Russia.

Every year a substantial money prize is given to some one individual whose efforts are believed to have done the most for the peace of the world. The money will be used to establish a permanent industrial peace committee.

PARIS, December 10.—The religious crisis has become alarming. The Pope has rejected the Government's proffer of continuance of public worship under the common law.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—President Roosevelt has written a letter to the Cabinet, denying the charge of duplicity brought against him by Bellamy Storer, the late Ambassador to Austria. He also denies that he authorized Storer to request the Pope to make Archbishop Ireland a cardinal.

Few people give enough thought to the earning capacity of a dollar. When you look at a dollar, do not think of how much it will buy, but

HOW MUCH IT WILL EARN.

When you find yourself thinking of your dollars in this way, you are starting on the only straight and sure road to wealth. Idle dollars are of no more use to the world than idle men. Every dollar you make over the cost of actual necessities should be immediately placed under the safeguard of a strong bank and kept busily at work earning other dollars for you.
